

The Call of God: Ezekiel 2-3
Week 2 in Visions of God Series
October 13, 2024
Pastor Theo Myer

God's nickname for Ezekiel is "_____", which emphasizes Ezekiel's frailty and weakness compared to God.

God calls Ezekiel to _____ (prophet)

- Ezekiel needs _____ (2:1, 3:14, 3:24)

- Ezekiel is to focus on _____, not results (2:7, 3:8)

- There is a sweetness to _____ (3:1)

What is the call in your heart from God?

Remember!

To allow God to change our hearts, we want to connect with Him. The Daily Connections (Good Morning God, Spiritual Boost, Good Night Review) open up our lives to allow God to change us from the inside out.

Good Morning God is to be done when we first wake up in bed at the beginning of every day. Your Spiritual Boost connects you with God's words in the Bible during the day sometime when you have 10 minutes of quiet. Finally, you finish your day with Good Night Review, and you allow God's joy and forgiveness to come to you as you drift to sleep.

These three spiritual exercises take only 20 minutes each day, and they have been part of following Jesus for many of Jesus' followers over the last 2000 years. Try it yourself and see how your relationship with God deepens and how you are fundamentally changed by spending time with God!

Spiritual Boost Bible Readings

Day 1: Ezekiel 2:1-7

- ✳ How does the vision of chapter 1 affect Ezekiel's response in chapter 2?

Day 2: Ezekiel 2:8-3:9

- ✳ What helps you follow God even when those around you don't like it?

Day 3: Ezekiel 3:10-15

- ✳ In verse 10, why is it important to let God's words "sink deep into your heart first" before saying them to others?

Day 4: Ezekiel 3:16-23

- ✳ Would you like to be a Watchman for God? Why or why not?

Day 5: Ezekiel 3:24-27

- ✳ Would it be hard for you to be mute for a long period of time? Ezekiel is only going to speak when God has a message for others beginning here in 3:26 and ending seven years later in 33:21.
